The Act of Remembrance:

In Flanders Fields

Lieutenant-Colonel John McCrae

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Stewardship Seconds:

As Stewards of this land ... we shall not forget our Indigenous brothers and sisters who have come before us.

As Stewards of peace ... we shall not forget those in Military Service who have fought for our safety and freedom.

As Stewards of hope ... we shall not forget to give generously of who we are, and what we have to this Church, this Community, and this Country.

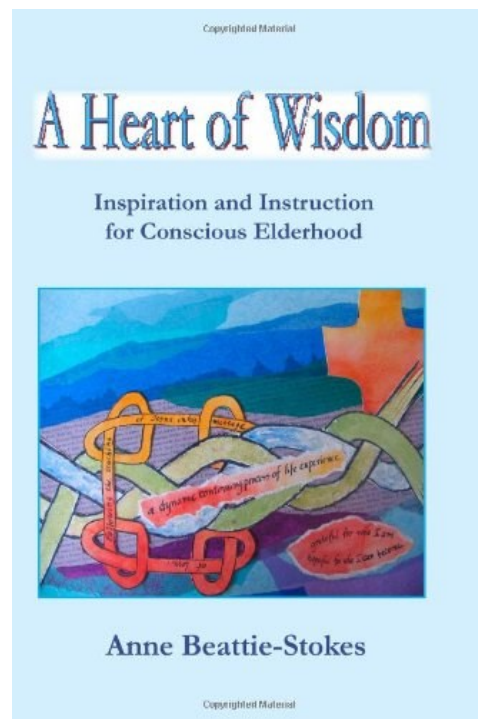

Rev. Dr. Anne Beattie-Stokes.

We are blessed to have Anne with us this morning, to share part of her family story, as we honour Remembrance Day. Anne is a retired United Church minister who shared her ministry formerly with White Oaks United Church here in London, and is currently serving as the Pastoral Support Minister for London Conference. Anne is a lover of nature, and is blessed to spend time at the cottage amongst God's creation of trees, rocks, water and paddles.

Anne is the author of: A Heart of Wisdom: Inspiration and Instruction for Conscious Elderhood. "Anne's art, poetry, and nature photographs throughout the book will inspire you, while her simple yet evocative prose will instruct you in the various spiritual and psychological tasks of the elder years of life." If this book is not already on your book shelf pick one up at the Middlesex Presbytery Resource Centre!
