

“Where liberal theology meets the best of tradition.”
What does this mean?

It means our theology is progressive, open, inclusive; and we worship in a Gothic-style church building with classical music. Liberal, or progressive Christianity, is a movement that values the questions of faith, the biblical scholarship of people like Marcus Borg, John Dominic Crossan, and John Shelby Spong, and the respect for other faith traditions.

If you want more information, check out these websites:

The Center for Progressive Christianity
<http://www.tpc.org/template/index.cfm>

The Center for Progressive Christianity on Facebook
<http://www.facebook.com/group.php?gid=18479574963>

Canadian Centre for Progressive Christianity
<http://www.progressivechristianity.ca/ccpc/index.php>

Jesus is a Liberal
<http://www.jesusisaliberal.org/>